CONGRESSIONAL.

After the Transaction of Very Little

Executive Session.

The Resolution Tendering Thanks to

Colonel Casey Reconsidered for

Very Good Reasons.

Civil Service Examination--The Cost of

Printing--Land and Railway

Legislation.

Congressional News.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.--The chair laid before the senate the credentials of the re-election of Senator Jones, of Nevada.

Hale, from the committee on appropriations, reported, with amendments, the regular annual naval appropriation bill, which was placed on the calendar and ordered printed. The bill was accompanied with a report, which was also ordered printed. Hale said he would endeavor to call up the bill to-morrow.

Sewell, from the committee on railroads, reported favorably the bill which already passed the house extending the provisions of the Pacific railroad construction act to such road as is to be constructed through the Niobrara valley.

Calder.

Hear introduced a Pacific railroad improvement bill, containing, he said, the provisions of a bill already reported from the judiciary committee but with some amendments suggested by experienced senators. He moved that the bill be printed and lie on the table. Agreed to.

Ingalls said a short executive session was desirable and moved that the senate proceed to the consideration of executive business. The demonstrators opposed the motion and called yea and nay.

The call resulted yea, thirty-one, nay, twenty-three, and the senate went into executive session.

NOTES.

The concurrent resolution agreed to tendering the thanks of congress to Col.

Casey, the corps engineer, and his assistants, Thomas moved to reconsider the vote by which the resolution was adopted in order to express the resolution. He called attention to the fact that its effect would be to extend the period during which Colonel Casey would be on the active list for ten years. He did not wish to detract from the achievements of Colonel Casey, but did not want the thanks of congress to be made too cheap. He did not think it right that Colonel Casey's term of service were largely in excess of the necessities of the situation; that they were appointed as Republican partisans and political workers, and in most cases prostituted their official positions to partisan ends; that they were armed with revolvers and other deadly weapons furnished by the national committee of the Republican party; that many such deputy marshals, so appointed and armed, were notorious criminals and men known to be of vicious and brutal habits and many of them were non-residents of the state of Ohio; that many such deputy marshals, under the order of Marshal Wright, aided abducted and encouraged fraudulent voting, intimidation of voters and committing gross outrages upon the elective franchise and rights of honest citizens; that the payment of special deputy marshals on the day after the election was without legal warrants and all the moneys paid such persons for services that day were illegal, and the sums so paid should be returned to the United States treasury; that the appointment of deputy marshals who were now residents of the state of Ohio was without warrants, and constituted a gross usurpation of authority and that the appointment of deputy marshals was, in many other proceedings, an illegal and unwarranted abuse of official trust.

"Whereas, your committee are of the opinion that Lot Wright, United States marshal of the southern district of Ohio, has been shown, by testimony, to have committed high crimes and misdemeanors; that he has been guilty of usurpation of authority and violation of the law in the manner set forth in the preamble to the resolution adopted by the house of representatives the second day of December last;

"In view of the impracticability of the nature of the impeachment proceedings and especially at this late day of this congress, your committee will not recommend the adoption of the articles of impeachment in his case, but they do recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

"That the clerk of the house of representatives be instructed to transmit a copy of the report and testimony in the case of Lot Wright, United States marshal for the southern district of Ohio, to the president of the DUBLIN, Feb. 26.--The United In-posed visit of the Prince of Wales to Ireland, disclaims any gratuitous disrespect for the prince. "But," it says, "if a request of Prince Hohenzollern, the PRITTSBURG, February 25.--The body of an unknown man was found in the snow near St. Clair station on the Pennsylvania railroad yesterday, where he has evidently been lying since the heavy snow, two weeks ago.

The deceased had a gold watch and considerable money, together with a through ticket west. His papers and cards bore the name of P. J. Yoder, of Schuylers, Neb., and the same name of Cattasqua, Pa. The position of the body indicated that he had fallen from a passenger train and was killed, and the body snowed under. The remains have been taken to Greensburg.

It has been demonstrated by experiment that wire fence can be used for telephone purposes.

THE original Swiss bell ringers, once worth thousands, are now inmates of a New York almshouse.

EASTERN capitalists, it is said, offer to lend money to Indiana at three and a half per cent. interest.

The number of mutilated bodies found in the abandoned medical college at Evansville foots up to forty-five.

THE small boys of Brooklyn are grieved because the common council has adopted an ordinance forbidding the use of the "bean shooters."

A LADY who has danced with four presidents will be at the inaugural ball to walk with Cleveland. This will be worth the price of admission.

Moody's meeting at Indianapolis has increased in interest and power every day, and until it seems that a revival wave is about to sweep over the city.

THE Messrs. Oliver are being crowded with propositions from other cities and towns to move their works. There are some thirty or forty of these propositions now on file at their office.

A WIFE's crazy-quilt mania led her husband to cut a patch from one of the large portions in the White House. What he said to his crazy-quilt wife on returning home after paying $50 fine in court, is left to the imagination.

THE sentence of Gen. Swain, as finally approved by the president, is to be suspended twelve years on half pay. The correspondence that resulted in the several modifications of the sentence is as interesting as any that ever occurred between the court and the executive.

LAND MONOPOLIES.

There are over twenty-nine landed properties owned in the herding districts of the west by English and Scotch syndicates which alone cover a little more than 20,000,000 acres.

Such pre-emptions to the extent of their development, will obviously make such home and foreign land monopolists the landlords of the future communities which are to overpread those regions.

To contend with this state of affairs the pioneers, the men without capital, are powerless. Thus the main object to which these imperial domains should have been devoted, the creation of an unending reserve of small farms and homes for the surplus population of the east, are being defeated to make way for development on western soil of the system of lordly landed monopolies which have long been the curse of England and Ireland.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATURE. Senator Weir's appellate court bill has been made the special order for Monday next.

Twenty-five new bills were introduced in the house Tuesday, notwithstanding the fact that less than two weeks of the session now remain. Under these circumstances there appears little or no prospect of passing any of the new measures.

The vote on the congressional apportionment bill by which that bill passed the house yesterday showed that the democrats were practically unanimous, the yeas being 68 and the nays 40, the latter less than half a dozen in excess of the usual strength of the minority.

The special committee appointed to report a bill on the reorganization of the Knightstown home made its report. The bill provides that the present trustees shall be out of office on the passage of the bill; that the governor shall then appoint new trustees, who shall appoint a superintendent, with the consent of the governor. The governor shall have power to remove trustees and to appoint their successors. The superintendent may be removed either by the governor or trustees.

The governor and state officers held a meeting and fixed upon March 7 at 11 o'clock a. m. as the time for opening the bids received from those who desire to invest in the state securities, under the provisions of the recently enacted law which contemplates the borrowing of $500,000 at a rate of interest not to exceed 4 per centum per annum, redeemable at the pleasure of the state after five years, and payable in ten years after the date thereof, interest payable semi-annually in the city of New York; also, the funding, at a lower rate of interest of the present outstanding temporary loan of $585,000 for a period not less than five years nor more than ten years.

A CHILD!

Some eight years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. The little child lingered along until it was about two years old, when its little life was yielded up to the fearful poison.

For six long years I have suffered untold misery. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and my great extremities I pressed to die. No language can express my feelings of woe during these long six years. I had the best medical treatment. Several physicians successively treated me, but all to no purpose. The Mercury and Potash seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. After three months ago I was advised try Swift's
